What you need to know

Complete this form if you wish to apply for default Death, Total & Permanent Disability (TPD) and/or Income Protection cover and you joined TelstraSuper more than 120 days after starting work with your current employer. You must either be:

- a current Corporate Plus member, or
- a current Personal Plus member who joined TelstraSuper via a Personal Plus default fund employer.

If you joined TelstraSuper within the last 120 days of commencing work with your employer, you can opt in for any default cover you're eligible for by completing the Opt-in default insurance cover form available at telstrasuper.com.au/forms

If your employer pays additional contributions to cover the cost of insurance premiums, you may already have default Death & TPD cover. To check your current cover, you can do so via your SuperOnline account or call us on 1300 033 166.

You need to be either 'At Work' or in 'Active Employment' on the cover start date, otherwise your cover will be Limited Cover*.

To calculate the cost of default cover, use our Premium calculator available at telstrasuper.com.au/calculators If you are approved, premiums will be generally deducted from your account quarterly in arrears.

You can change or apply for cover using our insurance portal available via your online account (if eligible) at telstrasuper.com.au

If you're signing this form on behalf of another person, you will need to provide identification in the member's name and attach an Authorised Third Party Representative Identification form available at telstrasuper.com.au/forms and include any certified documents as required.

*'At Work' means you are actively performing all the primary duties of your regular occupation and are not in receipt of and/or entitled to claim income support benefits from any source including workers' compensation benefits, statutory transport accident benefits and disability income benefits. 'Active Employment' means you are performing all of the duties of your gainful work or domestic duties, and capable of performing all of the duties of your gainful work or domestic duties on a full-time basis (this being at least 30 hours per week) even if you are not currently doing so. 'Limited Cover' means you are only covered for: a) sickness that first becomes apparent, or b) an accident that first occurs on or after the date the cover commences, recommences, or increases. For more information refer to the relevant Insurance Guide.

Important information

For more information including reference to defined terms, refer to the relevant TelstraSuper Product Disclosure Statement and Insurance Guide, email underwriting@telstrasuper.com.au or call us on 1300 033 166.

Elect to keep your insurance cover

You have taken the active step of applying for insurance cover and therefore you're deemed to be electing to keep all of your insurance cover now, and in the future. This includes if you transfer to a different TelstraSuper product.

This will ensure that you won't lose your insurance cover as a result of legislation covering low account balance (less than $6,000), inactivity (your account does not receive a contribution for 16 months) or if you're under 25 years of age.

To make an election to maintain insurance only in particular circumstances and not all of the circumstances specified above or if you want to make any changes to your insurance arrangements contact us on 1300 033 166.

3. Your duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation

About this application and your duty

When you apply for life insurance, we conduct a process called underwriting. It's how we decide whether we can cover you, and if so, on what terms and at what cost.

We will ask questions we need to know the answers to. These will be about your personal circumstances, such as your health and medical history, occupation, income, lifestyle, pastimes, and current and past insurance. The information you give us in response to our questions is vital to our decision.

The duty to take reasonable care

When applying for insurance, there is a legal duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation to the insurer before the contract of insurance is entered into.

A misrepresentation is a false answer, an answer that is only partially true, or an answer which does not fairly reflect the truth.

This duty also applies when extending or making changes to existing insurance, and reinstating insurance.

If you do not meet your duty

If you do not meet your legal duty, this can have serious impacts on your insurance. Your cover could be avoided (treated as if it never existed), or its terms may be changed. This may also result in a claim being declined or a benefit being reduced.

Please note that there may be circumstances where we later investigate whether the information given to us was true. For example, we may do this when a claim is made.

Guidance for answering our questions

You are responsible for the information provided to us. When answering our questions, please:

- Think carefully about each question before you answer. If you are unsure of the meaning of any question, please ask us before you respond.
- Answer every question.
- Answer truthfully, accurately and completely. If you are unsure about whether you should include information, please include it.
- Review your application carefully before it is submitted. If someone else helped prepare your application (for example, your adviser), please check every answer (and if necessary, make any corrections) before the application is submitted.
- You must not assume that we will contact your doctor for any medical information. If you are unsure about whether you should include information or not, please include it.

Changes before your cover starts

Your duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation continues until the time your insurance cover starts.

Before your cover starts, we may ask about any changes that mean you would now answer our questions differently. As any changes might require further assessment or investigation, it could save time if you let us know about any changes when they happen.

Where the Policy Owner and Life Insured are different persons

If the policy owner and life insured under the policy are different persons, a misrepresentation by the life insured has the effect as though it is a misrepresentation by the policy owner.

If you request life insurance inside super, the Trustee obtains this insurance from us in relation to you. In this circumstance, we rely on the representations made to us by you or the Trustee.

If you need help

It's important that you understand this information and the questions we ask. Ask us or your adviser for help if you have difficulty understanding the process of buying insurance or answering our questions.

If you're having difficulty due to a disability, understanding English or for any other reason, we're here to help and can provide additional support for anyone who might need it. If you want, you can have a support person you trust with you.

What can we do if the duty is not met?

If the person who answers our questions does not take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation, there are different remedies that may be available to us. These are set out in the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth). These are intended to put us in the position we would have been in if the duty had been met.

For example we may:

- avoid the cover (treat it as if it never existed),
- vary the amount of the cover, or
- vary the terms of the cover.

Whether we can exercise one of these remedies depends on a number of factors, including:

- whether the person who answered our questions took reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation. This depends on all of the relevant circumstances,
- what we would have done if the duty had been met – for example, whether we would have offered cover, and if so, on what terms,
- whether the misrepresentation was fraudulent, and
- in some cases, how long it has been since the cover started.

Before we exercise any of these remedies, we will explain our reasons, how to respond and provide further information, including what you can do if you disagree.
