Things you need to consider when withdrawing your super

When you withdraw your super benefits, your entitlements under the fund may cease. You need to consider all relevant information before you make a decision to withdraw your super. Some of the points to consider are:

Tax on withdrawals

If you're under age 60, tax will be deducted from your withdrawal before payment is made. If you haven't provided your Tax File Number, tax will be deducted from the taxable component of your withdrawal at the highest marginal tax rate plus the Medicare levy.

Insurance

You may currently have death, total and permanent disablement and income protection cover through your TelstraSuper account. If you withdraw your full account balance from your TelstraSuper account, your insurance will cease. If you are making a partial withdrawal, you should consider whether your withdrawal will affect your insurance cover including whether it will result in cessation of your insurance.
